UNC CHARLOTTE ANNUAL BOWLING TOURNAMENT
Wednesday, November 4th, 2015 2:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Question: Do I need to know how to bowl to attend this event?
Answer: The bowling tournament is open to bowlers of all levels. If you are new to bowling, there will be plenty of people available to answer your questions and help you learn your way around the alley! It is important to remember the objective of this tournament is to have fun with your colleagues.

Question: What if I don’t have a full team of four players?
Answer: No problem! We will accept registrations for singles, doubles, and triples and match you up to make a team of four. If you are a new to the University, this would be a great way to make new friends!

Question: There is another team from my department, can we be in adjacent lanes?
Answer: Please indicate any lane requests on your registration form. After the registration period ends, adjustments cannot be made.

Question: I don’t have a bowling ball or shoes. Do I need to buy them before the tournament?
Answer: Everything that you need will be provided at the alley. Your shoe rental and ball are included in your registration cost.

Question: This event is scheduled during my normal work hours. How do I ask for time off to attend?
Answer: Please coordinate with your supervisor for time off. You may use vacation leave, flex-time, or compensatory time upon approval of your supervisor.

Question: Will there be food and drinks?
Answer: AMF University Lanes has a snack bar which serves a wide variety of items which will be available for purchase.
